

THEATER OF THE SELF

MOVE YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS FORWARD AND SIMPLY GROW

In the Theater of the Self, every person, every thought, emotion, feeling and even matter holds a vibration. Everything is energy, even our words.

As a traveling soul, what frequency are you in? What are you attracting into your life? What vibration of energy are you living? Are you happy with the script of your life? What is going on in your mental, emotional atmosphere? Would you like to learn how to edit, add, or delete conditions?

Learn to take responsibility of your own character. Become consciously aware and awake. It is time to nurture and water your spiritual garden and simply grow past your fears into love, to navigate you spirit into greater levels of true happiness, bliss, and enlightenment.

Your outer world is the result of your inner world. On the canvas of your life, paint beautiful experiences. More importantly, always measure your life with love. In the Theater of the Self you must ask this question: what movie am I performing? Is it comedy, drama, or a thriller? Is it horror, science fiction, Romance, or documentary? And where are you writing this epic script from, the Kingdom of Spirit or the Kingdom of Ego? The choice is yours.

Join JT on the journey of raising consciousness with radiant self-expression and presence, to become more of yourself.
